

From: Paul Klouda
To: Microsoft ATR
Date: 1/24/02 5:05am
Subject: Microsoft Settlement

The proposed settlement is undoubtedly the best way to move forward, way too much time, energy and dollars have already been spent on this case and further prolonging the case with litigation is unnecessary. It's incredibly unfortunate that 9 states have decided that they know better than the Federal Govt as well as consumers and business who continue to buy Microsoft products not because they are being forced to but because they want to